

As a resident of Indiana, who has a "No call list" already, I have found that this system has worked very well for me this year. Since Indiana's inception of the "no call list" I haven't received any annoying solicitation calls. If the Federal "No call list" is any resemblance to Indiana's then I concur with it.

Thanks,

Joseph Turner